

What should I already know?

- I know the letter sounds (phonics and phonemes) from phonics and pronunciation lessons and can use them in my French speaking
- I know the vocabulary from the Early learning units
- I can use the negative form in French which we practised in the unit 'As-tu un animal?'
- I know the days of the week in French and can recognise them

What am I going to learn in this unit?

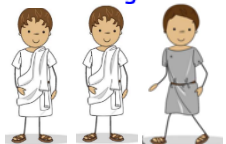

- I can understand the key facts of the history of Ancient Rome and recount them simply in French.
- I can say and spell the days of the week in French
- I can name some or all of the most famous Roman inventions in French.
- I can write a diary of a life as a rich and / or poor child in Roman times, including the use of the negative form in French
- I can improve my decoding skills, building up my use of language learning strategies, gradually understanding more of what I hear and read.
- I can improve my written and spoken French by writing a sequence of sentences, including the accurate use of the negative form
